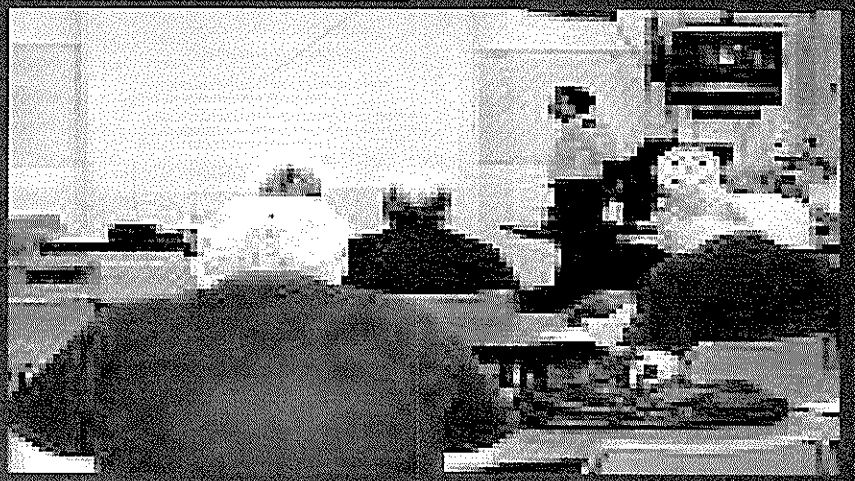
Auxiliarist of the Week December 28, 2008 / Div 2/ Seattle, WA / Ted Schiesswohl



Ted Schiesswohl of Issaquah, Washington is a member of Flotilla 22 Eastside, which is located in Seattle. He is very involved in the Auxiliary as well as Coast Guard Administrative and Operational Support at Sector Seattle.

Ted is a qualified Team Coordination Training Facilitator for D13 and has instructed six TCT Classes throughout the District in 2008. He is a qualified Assistant Life Raft Inspector and inspects commercial life rafts for the Prevention Department at Sector Seattle. He has logged over 462 hours in direct support for Marine Environmental Protection missions for the Coast Guard.

Ted is also the designated Auxiliary Standard Workstation Tier 1 Administrator for the District and has been selected to fill the position of Information System Specialist for the D13 Auxiliary District Staff (DSO-IS). He is also involved in Recreational Boating Safety in the Seattle area as a certified Recreation Boating Safety Partner Visitor and Vessel Examiner and continues to conduct missions for the Auxiliary in both of these areas.

Ted has over 928 hours of support for the Coast Guard Auxiliary and Coast Guard to date.