Master Chief Charles E. Lindsey

Command Master Chief, Thirteenth Coast Guard District

Master Chief Lindsey assumed the duties of Command Master Chief, Coast Guard District 13 in June 2014, where he serves as the senior enlisted advisor to the District 13 Commander for all U.S. Coast Guard missions within the Pacific Northwest Region including Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana.

Prior to being selected as the District 13 Command Master Chief, Master Chief Lindsey was the Officer in Charge of USCG Station Marathon, Fl. His previous assignments include Officer in Charge USCG Station San Juan, Puerto Rico; Officer in Charge USCG Motor Life Boat Station Ketchikan, Alaska (second tour); Executive Petty Officer USCGC NARWHAL; Executive Petty Officer USCGC POINT STUART; USCG Motor Life Boat Station Ketchikan (first tour); USCG Pacific Area Training Team and the USCGC CONIFER.

Master Chief Lindsey holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Leadership. He is a graduate of the U.S. Army Sergeants Major Academy, Chief Petty Officers Academy, and Senior Enlisted Command Master Chief Course. He holds an Advance Technical dive instructor rating as well as a 100GT Merchant Marine Officer's license.

Master Chief Lindsey's personal awards include three Meritorious Service Medals (with "O" device), the Coast Guard Commendation Medal (with "O" device), two Coast Guard Achievement Medals (with "O" device), and three Coast Guard Letter of Commendation, (with "O" device) along with numerous other service awards. He has earned the Permanent Cutterman's insignia, Coxswain insignia, and the Advanced Coast Guard Boat Force insignia.