TONNAGE MEASUREMENT, 1969

Technical Committee

PROPOSED RECOMMENDATION ON DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

The Technical Committee agreed on the following text of a proposed Recommendation of the Conference on the uniform interpretation of definition of terms:

> "The Conference, recognizing that the definitions of certain terms used in the International Convention on Tonnage Measurement of Ships, 1969, such as length and passenger, are identical to those contained in other conventions of which the Organization is depositary, recommends that Contracting Governments should take steps to ensure th t identical definitions of terms used in such conventions should be interpreted in a uniform and consistent manner."
