

USCGC DIAMONDBACK WPB 87370 Welcome Aboard

Welcome aboard USCGC DIAMONDBACK (WPB 87370). The following is some information about DIAMONDBACK that we hope you will find useful, as you become part of the DIAMONDBACK team.

1. SAFETY – Safety is paramount! All missions will be evaluated via the GAR model to properly assess and minimize the danger to all persons on board DIAMONDBACK. If an issue or concern over safety arises, bring it up and it will be addressed. We will err on the side of safety!
2. TAD crewmembers – Any TAD guests embarked on board DIAMONDBACK will be treated as a permanently attached crew and are welcome to participate in all crew activities.
3. DRILLS/TRAINING – During all hands drills/training are conducted frequently to ensure all hands are familiar with WQSB billets and responsibilities to ensure quick and decisive action when it is needed most.
4. BERTHING - The MAA shall ensure you receive a rack with clean linens and locker to stow any gear while underway onboard DIAMONDBACK. Non-rates will live onboard until certain qualifications are met, and then will be eligible to move in barracks at the command's discretion.
5. DAILY ROUTINE INPORT–
