

Commander Marko R. Broz

Commander Marko Broz assumed duties as Deputy Sector Commander at Sector Sault Ste Marie in July 2013. Commander Broz served as Sector Sault Ste Marie's Response Department head since June 2011.

Commander Broz came to Sector from the Pentagon where he served as the Coast Guard liaison to Naval Surface Warfare (N86)

In prior assignments, he served in intelligence and joint positions at Coast Guard Atlantic Area, Joint Interagency Task Force - South, and as a Senior Duty Officer at the White House Situation Room. Commander Broz has served eight years at sea. His afloat assignments include First Lieutenant, USCGC Vigorous, Cape May, NJ; Executive Officer, USCGC Adak, Sandy Hook, NJ; and Commanding Officer, USCGC Galveston Island, Guam; and USCGC Tempest, Pascagoula, MS.

Commander Marko Broz assumed duties as Deputy Sector Commander at Sector Sault Sainte Marie in July 2013. Commander Broz served as Sector Sault Sainte Marie's Response Department Head since June 2011.

Commander Broz is a 1994 graduate of the Coast Guard Academy where he earned a Bachelors of Science Management. He received a Master's degree in National Security and Strategic Studies. Commander Broz is married, has two children, and an overweight cat.