

Bramble, 1879

Builder: H.A. Ramsey and Company, Baltimore, MD

Contracted: 24 December 1878

Cost: $5,935

Machinery: coal-fired, steam engine with twin screws

Length: Unknown

Beam: Unknown

Draft: Unknown

Displacement: Unknown

Launched: 1879

Acquired: Unknown

Commissioned: June 1879

Disposition: Decommissioned 1904; sold 15 May 1905

Complement: Unknown

Cutter History:

Served as a steam launch in the 5th Lighthouse District in the Albemarle and Currituck sounds of eastern North Carolina and spent its entire career tending gas buoys. .

Sources:

Douglas Peterson. United States Lighthouse Service Tenders, 1840-1939. Annapolis and Trappe, MD: Eastwind Publishing, 2000.
