RESTRICTED

POLICY GOVERNING DISTRIBUTION AND USE OF THIS PUBLICATION

Instructions Applicable to U. S. Navy Personnel:

1. Navy Regulations, Article 76, contains the following statements relating to the handling of restricted matter:

"Paragraph (9) (a). Restricted matter may be disclosed to persons of the Military or Naval Establishments in accordance with special instructions issued by the originator or other competent authority, or in the absence of special instructions, as determined by the local administrative head charged with custody of the subject matter."

"(b) Restricted matter may be disclosed to persons of discretion in the Government Service when it appears to be in the public interest."

"(c) Restricted matter may be disclosed, under special circumstances, to persons not in the Government Service when it appears to be in the public interest."

2. The Bureau of Aeronautics Aviation Circular Letter No. 50-45 contains the following paragraph relative to the use of aeronautical technical publications:

"Paragraph 6. Distribution to all interested personnel. In connection with the distribution of aeronautical publications within any activity, it should be borne in mind that technical publications, whether confidential, restricted or unclassified, are issued for use, not only by officer personnel, but also by responsible civilian and enlisted personnel working with or servicing equipment to which the information applies."

3. Disclosure of technical information in this publication may not be made to representatives of foreign governments or nationals except in instances where those foreign governments have been cleared to receive information concerning all equipments, or other technical data covered by this publication.

Instructions Applicable to Army Personnel:

1. This publication is intended for technical aid and education of military and civilian personnel engaged in promoting the war effort. Its maximum distribution and use is therefore encouraged. However, since the publication is "restricted" within the meaning of AR380-5, the following security regulations will be observed:

a. Members of Armed Forces and civilian employees of War Department will be given access to this publication whenever required to assist in the performance of their official duties (including expansion of their knowledge of AAF equipment, procedures, etc.)

b. Personnel of War Department contractors and sub-contractors may be given possession of this publication, on a loan basis, or knowledge of its contents, only when required to assist in the performance of War Department contracts. Releases will be made in accordance with the requirements of T. O. No. 00-5-2.

c. Representatives of other governments will be given possession of this publication, or knowledge of its contents, only in accordance with AAF Letter No. 45-6.

2. This publication is restricted because the information contained in it is restricted. It does not follow that the physical article to which it relates is also restricted. Classification of the materiel or component must be ascertained independently of the classification of this document.

3. Neither this publication nor information contained herein will be communicated to press or public except through Public Relations channels.

Instructions Applicable to British Personnel:

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY.—Not to be communicated to anyone outside of his Majesty's service. Not to be published. The information given in this document is not to be communicated, either directly or indirectly, to the press or to any person not holding an official position in his Majesty's service.

LIST OF REVISED PAGES ISSUED

NOTE.—A heavy black vertical line, in the outer margin of revised pages (the left margin for left-hand columns, and the right margin for right-hand columns) indicates the extent of the revision. This line is omitted where more than 50 percent of the page is revised.
