

OMBUDSMAN QUALITIES AND EXPERIENCE

An ombudsman must have the time and energy to do this job; careful consideration should be given before appointing someone who works or attends school full-time.

Desired Qualities	Comments/Notes
Prior volunteer experience
Time and energy for the job
Able to balance work, family and volunteer responsibilities
Patient, mature, flexible
Someone you can work with closely, trust and respect
A good role model, someone who will be credible with spouses and the command
Intelligent, caring, a good listener, a good communicator and able to work well with others
Demonstrates support of CG goals and command mission
Does not gossip or moralize about others; can maintain confidential information; non-judgmental towards others	