

Medical Officer Peer Review Instrument

Element	Yes	No	Comment
1. Entries are neat and legible
2. Vital signs entered
3. Abnormal vital signs addressed
4. Pain level documented and addressed if applicable
5. Pertinent positives/negatives of HPI appropriately documented
6. Pertinent positives/negatives of physical exam appropriately documented
7. Previous laboratory and radiology reports are reviewed and appropriate follow-up addressed
8. Medical decision making appropriate
9. Plan consistent with diagnosis
10. Appropriate ancillary tests ordered
11. Drug utilization appropriate
12. Condition entered on Problem Summary List (DD2276)
13. Patient instructions, including follow-up, documented
14. Provider name printed or stamped			