What damages are covered by the CG Claims Program?

Damage to or loss of personal property sustained incident to the service of the military member or civilian employee of the Coast Guard.

Examples of personal property include:

Uniforms, clothing, cars, stereos, CDs, computers, furniture, books, photos, pets, sports equipment, food spoilage, etc.

Incident to Service includes:

- (1) Property located at government owned or leased housing or onboard a military installation damaged, lost or destroyed by hurricane, flood, earthquake, fire, vandalism, theft or other unusual occurrences including electrical power outages not caused by you;
- (2) Property damaged or lost while traveling under government orders;
- (3) Property damaged or lost during the performance of duty to alleviate a public disaster or to save lives; or
- (4) Property damaged or lost in use that is necessary for the performance of official duties AND used at the express direction or request of a superior authority.

Who may file a claim?

- a. Coast Guard members;
- b. Coast Guard Reservists engaged in training;
- c. Civilian employees of the Coast Guard;
- d. Public Health Service Officers detailed to the Coast Guard;
- e. Authorized agent (with Power of Attorney) or legal representative (with retainer agreement) of (a.) and (d.) above; and
- f. Survivors of a-d above in the following order of precedence:
  - (1) Spouse
  - (2) Child/children
  - (3) Parent(s)
  - (4) Sibling(s)

Do I need to file with my insurance company, if I have private insurance?

Yes... If the property was covered by insurance, you need to first file with your insurance company. You may then file a damage claim with the Coast Guard for any damage or loss not covered by your insurer. You are responsible for repaying to the Coast Guard any amount you recover from your insurer that was paid to you by the Coast Guard.

Will I be reimbursed for the full replacement cost of the damaged or lost property?

No... Claims are paid on the depreciated value of the cost of the damaged or lost personal property. The law imposes a maximum amount that can be paid to you. It also sets a maximum payment per claim for certain categories of property.

Should I buy private insurance?

Yes, types of private insurance include:

Renter's Insurance:

Unless you purchase a policy that provides for full replacement value, you may receive the depreciated value of your damaged property.

Flood Insurance:

Unless you purchase a separate policy that provides coverage for flood damage, your renter's policy may not cover your damages caused by flooding or rising water.

Comprehensive Vehicle Insurance:

Unless you have comprehensive coverage on your vehicle, your Coast Guard damage claim may be capped at a payment of $3000.
