Unloading just about everything off the cutter in order to start dry-dock work in Alameda CA.

Greetings

Friends,

August is over and our Dry-Dock has begun as of September 1st. It has definitely been a great close to our Fiscal Year 2010. All of our crew has changed out, and the newer guys are settling right in and getting the hang of how we run things. This past month we had the opportunity to check out a few National Parks, attended the CO/OIC conference for Sector Los Angeles, conducted a SAR Demo, and transited north to San Francisco for our seven week dry dock. Stay tuned for next month's special edition drydock issue! Please have a look inside and enjoy.

Best Regards,
LT Charles Paris
Commanding Officer

Search & Rescue Demo

CGC HALIBUT was able to take out children from the LA County Explorers/ Information Technology for Kids program for an underway Search & Rescue demonstration being performed by CG Air Station Los Angeles. We conduct events like these in hope of inspiring children to stay in school and out of trouble so that one day they too can be on a CG Cutter or Helicopter if they so choose.

FS2's Recipe of the Month

Cooking the Coast Guard Way

Coconut Curry Chicken

What you will need:

- 2 pounds boneless skinless chicken breasts, cut into 1/2-inch chunks
- 1 teaspoon salt and pepper, or to taste
- 1 1/2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 2 tablespoons curry powder
- 1/2 onion, thinly sliced
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1 (14 ounce) caned coconut milk
- 1 (14.5 ounce) can stewed, diced tomatoes
- 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
- 3 tablespoons of sugar

Directions:

Season chicken pieces with salt and pepper. Heat oil and curry powder in a large skillet over medium-high heat for two minutes. Stir in onions and garlic, and cook for 1 minute more. Add chicken, tossing lightly to coat with curry oil. Reduce heat to medium, and cook for 7 to 10 minutes, or until chicken is no longer pink in center and juices run clear. Pour coconut milk, tomatoes, tomato sauce, and sugar into the pan, and stir to combine. Cover and simmer, stirring occasionally, approximately 30 to 40 minutes.
