

Auxiliarist of the Week

Andy Nyerges of FL-33

Andy Nyerges of FL-33 participates in oil spill investigations and is an Auxiliary instructor.

He is also an active water sportsman, SCUBA diver and Certified Sailing Instructor.

He completed his MBA in May 2007 and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant, Corps of Engineers, through the Army ROTC program.

He has completed Army Airborne training, the Engineer Officers Basic Course and is currently attending the U.S. Army Sapper Leader Course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

He is assigned to the Third Brigade of the 25th Infantry Division and will deploy to Kirkuk, Iraq this fall.

