Top: DC3 Croteau dominates on the playing field, but this time not with a football. Speedy chopper evacuations have played a critical role in saving lives.

Left: SN Howard, HS1 Hunter and YN3 Abraham keep positive despite the challenges.

Right: SN Howard hands out a portion of the remaining bottled water to those in need at the medical staging area of the Killick Haitian Coast Guard Base.

Top Right: ENS English is captured sharing the load and hauling an injured victim to receive proper medical care. Ms. English volunteered to provide direction and regulation for the day in the controlled chaotic environment.

Left: The skies are filled with air traffic consisting of Navy & Coast Guard helicopters plus multi-agency cargo planes– all providing valuable assistance in the massive relief effort.

Below: ENS English, HS1 Roberts and HS1 Hunter meet for a brief moment to assess developing situations at the Killick Medical Staging area.

Top: HS1 Roberts turns from medical responder to magician and pulls joy and happiness right out of her bag for this Haitian girl.

Middle Left: One small boy finds comfort with Dora the Explorer and sets off very happy to enjoy an adventure with his new companion.

Bottom: HS1 Hunter spreads the joy to this pair of boys before setting off to treat more patients.
