

SAMPLE MTSRU EVENT DATA FORM

1. USCG Sector Jacksonville is currently updating the information used to measure the effectiveness of MTS Recovery efforts within the port and the status of commercial operations post-incident. This information is not shared with the general public and is used to help the MTS Recovery Unit prioritize recovery efforts and gauge the effectiveness of the response. We request you review the criteria below and provide the information to the MTSRU via Fax: (904) 564-7605 prior to xx August 2011. Please refer to the example below.

Please do not hesitate to contact Douglas Campbell at (904) 564-7684 or via e-mail at douglas.campbell@uscg.mil with any questions.

Facility Point of Contact: _____ Telephone: _____

Fax: _____ E-Mail: _____

Facility Name	Average Monthly Arrivals	Average Transfer Amounts (if applicable)	Primary Products or Goods Received (i.e. specific commodity or "containers" or "bulk aggregate")
MYER OIL	7 Vessel Arrivals Per Month	45k Bbls Each Transfer	Gasoline, Diesel, Kerosene, Jet-A, Unleaded Blend XY

Check One: Fully Available Partially Available _____ Not Available _____
 (Operating at Pre-Incident level) (Operating at Reduced Capacity) (Restricted in ability to operate)

Factor(s) limiting operations (i.e. channel closure, damage to pier, reduced personnel):

Is Facility Capable of Receiving Vessels if the Waterways are Open: Yes _____ No _____

Critical Post-Incident Cargoes	Importance and/or Criticality*	Additional Information
Unleaded Fuel Blend Stock (technical name)	Facility Maintains only x# days of inventory on-hand. Critical for blending supplies for regional gas stations post-incident	Facility is primary supplier for x # of gas stations in NE Florida. Critical for pre-storm evacuation fueling and post-incident fueling to ensure recovery and reconstitution of the area. Facility is primary fueling location for Duval County EMS Vehicles, etc....
No. 2 Diesel	Provides Fuel for fleet of Publix Grocery Delivery Vehicles	Critical for post-incident re-stock of grocery chain stores
Kerosene	Non-Critical
Jet-A	Provides xx % of aviation fuel to Jacksonville International Airport	Critical for post-incident operations
Unleaded Gasoline	Sole fuel provider for 1,500 gasoline stations in NE Florida	Critical for post-hurricane recovery efforts.

Criticality / Importance may reflect the importance/ critical need of this cargo on a Regional Basis or locally. Ex: The product received is critical based on its unique use; the products critical need to support Port Recovery or Emergency Response efforts; the product's importance to another Regional area based on its unique components/design.