Re-opening of the Port of Georgetown, SC

The Captain of the Port, Charleston, South Carolina, reports that an Aids to Navigation (ATON) assessment of the Port of Georgetown has found that the temporary replacements for the front and rear structures of Range "A" are sufficient for safe nighttime deep draft commercial vessel traffic. Therefore, the restriction to daylight operations through Range "A" for deep draft vessels entering or departing the Port of Georgetown is hereby lifted.

The Port Operations Department at U.S. Coast Guard Marine Safety Office Charleston can be contacted for further information at (843) 724-7686 or (843) 724-7684.
