ENLISTED SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

(a) Board of Awards, ESUNOLAINST 1650.1

1. Congratulations on your selection as the Electronic Systems Support Unit, New Orleans, Enlisted Sailor of the Quarter for the Third Quarter of 2004. You will receive a personalized plaque, three days of liberty and a positive page 7 entry to document your selection.
2. While assigned to ESD New Orleans your performance was exceptional. During this time you volunteered to fly to San Juan on short notice to perform a full TEMPEST inspection and report on the VDS and GANTSEC over a 3-day period. Also, while standing duty, you received four different 69 Radar casualty calls from four different units within a 72-hour period, correcting all four casualties while maintaining your composure and stamina. You researched and identified a superior performing Radar on behalf of Station Venice to improve Radar sensitivity on one of their assets. As Vehicle Petty Officer, you ensured the operability of four government vehicles that accumulated over 5000 miles per month traveling to ESD's customers.
3. You have acted as a mentor to newly assigned technicians, providing them with guidance and resources while encouraging additional off-duty education. In addition, you guided them through the Duty Technician qualification process, teaching them the numerous technical requirements needed to perform their jobs as Duty Technicians. This assistance and mentoring has assisted these technicians in attaining advancement. As the shop's Combined Federal Campaign Representative, you showed your belief in the importance of being involved in one's community.
4. You are a highly professional and motivated member of Team Coast Guard. You have shown maturity beyond your years by being highly motivated in furthering your career and seeking out venues to further develop yourself both professionally and personally. Your completion of an associate's degree while performing your duties at the ESD is one example of this maturity.
5. Your "can do" attitude and dedication is contagious to others and helped make ESD a more productive and pleasant place to work. Your concern for others and work ethic are in keeping with our core values of Honor, Respect, and Devotion to Duty and are in the highest traditions of military service.
