SECNOLAINST 3000.1

- c. All personnel active duty, reserve and civilian will report to their appropriate chain of command in accordance with this instruction during an incident.
 - d. District Eight will ensure provisions to account for CG Auxiliary are included in their personnel accountability guidance. SECNOLA auxiliary liaison shall also report accountability to the SECNOLA Director of Auxiliary or to the Sector Personnel Accountability Unit is established.
3. DIRECTIVES AFFECTED. None.
4. DISCUSSION
- a. SECNOLA encompasses a dynamic and complex AOR that has many areas that could be impacted during an incident. Members should use reference (e) and (f) for evacuation and Continuity of Operations guidance. A key component of organizing after an incident is accounting for the safety and security for all personnel as soon as possible. Personnel should report in to their immediate supervisor as soon as they hear about an incident that has potential impact to unit operations.
 - b. The below resources are available to remain up-to-date on operations status and closures; Louisiana Alert Systems Channels for Radio and Television broadcasts:
 - (1) New Orleans - AM 870/WWL - FM 101.9/WLMG (This covers all of the South East to the Western border of Terrebonne, Assumption, Saint James, Saint Johns and Tangipahoa Parishes.)
 - (2) Lafayette - AM 1330/KVOL - FM 99.9/KTDY (Covers St. Mary, St. Martins, Iberia, Ascension, Pointe Coupe, Evangeline, Acadia, and Vermilion Parishes.)
 - (3) Baton Rouge - AM 1150/WJBO - FM 102.5/WFMF (Covers Saint Feliciana, Livingston, E. Baton Rouge, W. Baton Rouge and Iberville.)
 - (4) Sector New Orleans Special Announcement Hotline (866) 504-USCG (8724). Listen to the index because it will change depending on the situation. Due to system time out issues you may need to call a second time.
5. POLICY. In preparation for an incident, all SECNOLA personnel and subunits shall:
- a. Review applicable District Eight and SECNOLA instructions and plans.
 - b. Annually verify / update their personnel recall information in their Direct-Access profile. (Personnel need to update SGLI information annually in November it is recommended to incorporate this task with the other)
 - c. Verify / update the SECNOLA Master and Department / Division recall rosters quarterly (monthly is recommended during hurricane season). See Enclosure (2) for format.
