Sir,

The roster has the exam results. Mr. [REDACTED] scored 100%, and DC1 scored 90% and received feedback/guidance on the few he got wrong.

Thanks

HSC,

Thanks. If they don't have the cards, they don't have the cards. You previously sent me copies of the CPR training you conducted in August 2005 and CWO [REDACTED] was in attendance. If you can send me an email verifying that he passed the course we can consider him certified. With EM2 [REDACTED] we'll just have to include his statement that he recalls taking the course at the NESU two years ago.

R,
[REDACTED]

Chief,
Good afternoon. ENS [REDACTED] does not recall standing break-in LSO watch with you the morning of the dive mishap, 17 August 2006. Do you remember if she stood break-in LSO with you?
