

Forgetmenot , 1910

A low-growing plant of the genus Myosotis, having small blue flower clusters.

Tender History:

Forgetmenot was a 41-foot wooden-hulled harbor launch that entered service in 1910. She was powered by a 24 horsepower gasoline engine and propelled by a single propeller. She served as buoy boat in the 11th Lighthouse District. She was decommissioned and sold in 1933.

Sources:

Douglas Peterson. United States Lighthouse Service Tenders, 1840-1939. Annapolis: Eastwind Publishing, 2000.
