REPLACES BROTHER IN COAST GUARD

Seventeen-year-old Joseph A. Gadek, Jr., is taking his brother's place in the Coast Guard. The lad's brother died when the Coast Guard Cutter ESCANABA sank as the result of an underwater explosion while on convoy duty in the North Atlantic. Joseph, an apprentice seaman at the Coast Guard Training Station, Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn, New York, is shown here with the Purple Heart posthumously awarded his brother. His home is at 512 Alexander Ave., Linden, N. J.
