

U.S. Coast Guard Aviation History

Consolidated N4Y-1

Consolidated N4Y-1; "N4Y-1 (Consolidated) U.S. Coast Guard two seated land plane No. CG-310 (110) commissioned August 1932. Decommissioning date unknown. Only one of this model known to be in service."

Historical Information:

The Coast Guard purchased a single N4Y-1 under an Army Air Corps contract in 1932 for $8,000.00. It operated through 1941 as a training aircraft out of Air Station Cape May. According to Percy, "Initially numbered CG-10, it later became 310 and even later V110. The N4Y-1 served until 1941 after being commissioned during August 1932. During 1939 it was based with the Coast Guard at Biloxi, Mississippi."

Sources:

Coast Guard Historian's Office Consolidated N4Y-1 File.

Arthur Percy, U.S. Coast Guard Aircraft Since 1916 (Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1991), p. 131.

