

U.S. Coast Guard History Program

Arum, 1893

Builder: Unknown
Contracted: 1893
Cost: $1,135.50
Machinery: internal combustion, single screw
Length: 25'
Beam: 6'
Draft: 3'
Displacement: Unknown
Launched: 1893
Acquired: Unknown
Commissioned: Unknown
Disposition: Sold 1908
Complement: Unknown

History:

A small launch it was originally assigned to USLHT Pharos as a support craft. After Pharos was sold in 1908, it was used as an inspection, repair, and construction craft in Charleston, SC.

Sources:

Douglas Peterson. United States Lighthouse Service Tenders, 1840-1939. Annapolis and Trappe, MD: Eastwind Publishing, 2000.

