

Gaviota, 1927

Seagull, mew, any of several species of gull that inhabits coastal areas.

Built: Unknown
Cost: Unknown
Machinery: Unknown
Top Speed: Unknown
Length: 48'2"
Beam: 11'
Draft: 3'3"
Displacement: Unknown
Launched: Unknown
Acquired : Seized; absorbed on 18 May 1927
Commissioned: 1 June 1927
Disposition: Unknown
Complement: Unknown
Armament: Unknown

Cutter History:

This seized boat was absorbed into the Coast Guard 18 May 1927 and commissioned 1 June at Oakland, CA. She was a twin-screw vessel.

Sources:

Donald Canney. U.S. Coast Guard and Revenue Cutters, 1790-1935. Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1995.

U.S. Coast Guard. Record of Movements: Vessels of the United States Coast Guard: 1790 - December 31, 1933. Washington, DC: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1934; 1989 (reprint).
