Class history—The 82-foot patrol boats have mild steel hulls and aluminum superstructures. Longitudinally framed construction was used to save weight.

These boats were completed with a variety of power plants. 82301 through 82313, 82315 through 82317, and 82319 through 82331 were powered by two Cummins 600-hp diesels. Boats 82318 and 82332 through 82379 received two Cummins 800-hp diesels. The 82314 was fitted with two 1,000-hp gas turbines and controllable-pitch propellers. The purpose of this installation was to permit the service to evaluate the propulsion equipment. All units were eventually fitted with the 800-hp diesels. Units remaining in 1990 were re-equipped with Caterpillar diesels.

WPB 82301 through 82344 were commissioned without names; at that time the Coast Guard did not name patrol craft shorter than 100 feet. In January 1964 they were assigned names.

Ship's history:

The Point Evans was stationed at Long Beach, CA, from 1967 to 1992 (?). She was used for law enforcement and search and rescue operations. On 21 February 1970, she helped fight fire at Rincon, CA. On 2 August 1973, she fought a fire on F/V Heimark 5 miles off Los Angeles.

She was stationed in Hawaii from 1992 (?) to 1999. In 1995, she ran aground nears Molikini Crater and sustained some hull and propeller damage.
