From the desk of the Fun Boss

Welcome to Winter in Cape May. Thankfully no heavy snow....yet! We continue to have a busy and interesting schedule of events for the month of February. Please take a moment to review the newsletter. All kinds of fun things to do.

Thank you to everyone who came out and watched the Super Bowl at the Harborview. CSC Krusko said it was one of the best events we have had at the club in a long time.

Thanks for patronizing your MWR.

Remember, please don't drink and drive and no cell phones/distracted driving. Be safe!

Mr. Tony Buero, CMCE
MWR Director, x6804

Harborview

TRACEN Cape May, greetings from the Harborview! We would like to thank everyone who stopped in over the last few months for events held here at the Harborview, making them a huge success! Starting Feb. 1st we have updated our menu. Some items and prices have change, so be on the lookout for that. Unfortunately this is a necessary evil that needs to be done once a year. We really appreciate all of your support and hope that you will continue to stop in and enjoy the view, cold drinks, and great food!

Thanks again and see you soon!

The admission to The Naval Air Station Wildwood Aviation Museum is now FREE for Active Duty !

The Naval Air Station Wildwood (NASW) Aviation Museum is a non-profit museum located at the Cape May Airport inside historic Hangar #1. Commissioned in April 1943, NASW served as an active dive-bomber squadron training facility during World War II. Today, Hangar #1 has been restored and transformed into an Aviation Museum that houses a number of aircraft, engines, special exhibits, and educational interactive displays. The museum located at the Cape May Airport in Lower Township, in Cape May County. <http://www.usnasw.org/>
