IT'S TRANSFER SEASON! IS YOUR WORKFORCE READY?

Along with their myriad other checklists, the Office of Civil Rights reminds commanders to take stock of managers' and supervisors' EEO readiness. Help is Available. The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Training Institute offers a variety of workshops and seminars geared specifically for the federal sector. EEOC's training is ideal for federal supervisors and employees, EEO counselors and investigators, agency representatives and attorneys, and anyone else interested in or responsible for compliance with equal opportunity laws, regulations, and practices.

Many classes will be offered at locations nationwide. Best Practice: why not offer an on-site course to your entire workforce? All of EEOC's standardized courses can be delivered on-site, tailored to your unit's needs!

Examining Conflicts in Employment Law (EXCEL) is the premier training conference for Federal managers, supervisors and EEO practitioners. This conference features top-level officials from the (EEOC), other federal agencies and nationally known EEO professionals. The 2008 EXCEL Conference will be held in Chicago on August 18-21, 2008.

What better way to expend FY08 training dollars than to ensure your command's preparation for non-discrimination in the workforce. For information about the EEOC Training Institute, call 1-800-600-6157 or email eeoc.traininginstitute@eeoc.gov.

INFUSION: CGA'S 33RD ANNUAL ECLIPSE WEEK

The Coast Guard Academy hosted its 33rd Annual Eclipse Week, an active celebration of multi-cultural heritage and leadership sponsored by the Academy's Diversity Councils. This year's theme "Infusion" highlighted mentoring and professional development activities supporting CGA's strategic initiatives for diversity, retention, and recruitment. Widely attended by Coast Guard personnel with diverse backgrounds and experiences, activities included forums attended by officers, civilian employees, retirees and cadets covering topics such as Ethics in Leadership, Mentoring and Professional Development.

COMPLAINTS CORNER!

Mediation Questions and Answers

Question: What are the key ingredients in conducting a smooth and successful Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) session?

Answer: Key Advisors. A contact list with key advisors, decision makers, and specialists, who have been alerted to be on call, will enable the mediator to immediately clear up any questions or concerns raised by parties to a mediation, and avoid unnecessary delays in reaching agreement. The list of key contacts may consist of specialists from HR, labor relations, legal, Equal Opportunity/Civil Rights, or management officials who have decision authority. The list should be consistent with the matter being mediated.

Question: Should an agency offer ADR to all complainants, or just target specific types of cases?

Answer: The most important factor is to offer ADR as soon as possible after a claim has been raised, with the goal of early resolution. Thus, ADR should be offered to aggrieved parties at the pre-complaint or counseling stage. Mediation can be offered at any time thereafter. (Note: for successful resolution, parties may not be forced into mediation; they must enter willingly.) ## LEARNING THE ROPES FROM TEAM MIAMI

Coast Guard presented Sector Miami with the 2008 Partnership in Education (PIE) Collaborative Award for outstanding performance with Miami Edison Middle School, Miami Edison Senior High School, Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Program (GEAR UP), and International University Miami. Sector Miami partnered with two local schools and GEAR UP. In total 26 Coast Guard members participated as mentors, and numerous volunteers dedicated more than 875 hours to students' academic and personal development. Mentors assisted students in achieving record academic gains, participating in advanced placement courses and developing an interest in attending college. Pictured below: some of the mentors with students.
