ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR DEFAULT
AND SANCTION OF REVOCATION

On February 27, 2007, Sector Delaware Bay filed a Motion for Default Order seeking revocation of the Respondent's Merchant Mariner's Document, which Motion is incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof. A copy of the Motion for Default was sent to Respondent via DHL (express courier service) and received by Respondent as evidenced by the tracking history results of DHL. Coast Guard also submitted to the court a Return of Service for Default Motion and an accompanying statement that LTJG Otis Barrett of Sector Delaware confirmed service of the Motion of Default via a telephone call with Respondent on March 2, 2007 and again when Respondent made a personal visit to Sector Delaware on March 19, 2007 where he signed a Lost License/Document Affidavit.

On March 28, 2007, this S&R proceeding was assigned to undersigned for adjudication of the Motion for Default. The matter was taken under advisement and a complete review of this case was made. According to the case file, a copy of the original Complaint, dated December 13, 2006, was served personally on the Respondent on that same date.

To date, Respondent has neither filed an Answer as required by 33 CFR 20.308, nor a response to the Motion for Default as required by 33 CFR 20.310(b).

Upon consideration of the present record, the Motion for Default is GRANTED. A default constitutes an admission of all facts alleged in the Complaint and a waiver of the Respondent's right to a hearing. (33 CFR § 20.310(c)).

Wherefore, it is

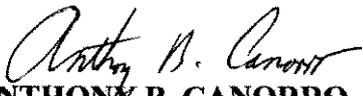

SANCTION

ORDERED that your Merchant Mariner's Document is hereby REVOKED. You must deposit your document to the Coast Guard. If you knowingly continue to use your document, you may be subject to criminal prosecution. The court is in receipt of a Lost License/Document Affidavit that Respondent has executed, dated March 19, 2007, attesting to the loss of his Merchant Mariner's Document.

Under 33 CFR 20.310(e) for good cause shown, an Administrative Law Judge may set aside this finding of Default. You may file a motion to set aside the finding with the ALJ Docketing Center, Baltimore.

Service of this Order of Revocation upon you serves to notify you of your right to appeal as set forth in 33 CFR Subpart J, Section 20.1001. (Attachment A).

Dated: April 5, 2007.
