3. INITIAL PAYMENT OPTIONS AND POLICIES FOR CABLE / INTERNET SERVICES

- You will have a number of ways to make payment for your monthly cable services to your residence. You may pay by check, money order/cashiers check, credit card (Visa/MC) or by cash. It is highly recommended that you do not send cash through the mail. The payment amount due on the 1st of each month is $35.00 for cable TV service only, $25.00 for cable internet service only or $55.00 for both cable TV and cable internet service. Registrations for service after the 15th of the month will require an initial payment of the remaining current month and the full next month payment. Payments are due on the 1st of each month. Payments received later than the 10th of the month a $5.00 late fee will be added to your payment due. If payment due is not received by the 1st of the next month your service will be disconnected and a $20.00 disconnection fee will be added to your payment due. To reconnect your service on a future date, you must pay all unpaid fees plus you will be charged a $20.00 reconnection fee. You will receive 97 channels as part of the cable TV service and continual cable access to the internet 24/7. Housing residents, wishing to have Satellite Premium TV channels, pay-per-view, or NFL Sunday Ticket, must contact DirecTV for this service and be billed separately by DirecTV. Barrack residents will not have the opportunity to obtain satellite TV service in their rooms. Fees are subject to change.
- If payment is by check/money order/cashier checks, please make them payable to: MWR
- If you would like to automatically make your payments on a monthly basis by credit card (Visa/MC), complete and sign a Credit Card Payment Authorization Form and we will automatically charge your credit card monthly on the first business day of each month.

4. TERMS OF SERVICE AGREEMENT (TOSA)

General Use Policy

The use of Morale Web Resources (MWR) accounts or services for orchestration of or participation in any abuse of the MWR or any other network, system, or service is expressly forbidden and is grounds for account termination and possible legal action. Any action which interferes with the MWR or other networks or which affects the use of or access to any network is likewise expressly forbidden. MWR retains at all times the right to determine what constitutes network abuse. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Attempts to hack the MWR network or any other network or system
- Port scanning
- Use of “Cracking” software or techniques
- Dissemination of viruses or other malware
- Provocation of attacks on the MWR network or any other network
- Conduct which causes MWR to be blocked by another provider or which causes MWR to be placed on a “block list”
- Flooding MWR or any other network with traffic for the purpose of disrupting service
- Mail bombing

MWR customers must also comply with the acceptable use policies of our upstream providers, Sonic.net (<http://www.sonic.net>), UUNET (<http://www.uu.net>) and Cable and Wireless (<http://cw.com>)

File Server Restriction

MWR customers are prohibited from using our service for the purpose of operating a dedicated internet file server or web server.

Use of Copyrighted Material

MWR is obligated to comply with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 (DCMA). The following activities are violations of the DMCA, if done without the permission of the copyright owner:

- Copying and sharing images, music, movies, or any other copyrighted material, either by placing in a shared network folder, or through the use of peer-to-peer (P2P) file sharing software
- Posting or plagiarizing copyrighted material on your personal webpage
- Downloading any song, movie, software, etc. which you have not legally purchased from the copyright owner

Violation of the copyright law can lead to civil liability of up to $150,000 for each act of willful infringement. Criminal liability is punishable by up to 3 years in prison and a $250,000 fine for a first offense. Finally, copyright violators will be subject to CG discipline. MWR does not police copyright violations, nor monitor internet usage, but will cooperate with law enforcement agencies when required.

Access to Consent

MWR functions as a common carrier and does not monitor or interrupt our users' activities, exert editorial control over their content, or censor them in their content. Material can be found on the internet or in Usenet news groups, etc., that some customers may find objectionable; MWR is not responsible for any content available via MWR accounts or services. Any limitation of access to content is at all times the responsibility of the account holder and MWR shall not be held responsible for access to material that an account holder deems inappropriate.

Billing Cycle

Payments are due monthly, on the 1st. All services must be pre-paid before they will be provided. Payments are credited from the account due date, not from the date the payment is received. If payment is not received on or before the 10th, the account will be subject to a $5 late fee. If payment is not received by the close of business on the 1st of the following month, the account will be considered delinquent and service will be terminated. Delinquent accounts will be subject to a $20 disconnect fee in addition to the $5 late fee. In order to regain good standing, account holders will be required to pay a $20 reconnection fee as well.

Cable/Internet Work Orders

Please report any service issues to the MWR Customer Service Center. Office hours are Daily 0800 – 2200. Service issues may be reported in person to the MWR Customer Service Counter in Building 250, by phone by calling 765-7341, or by email at christopher.m.shinkle@uscg.mil.
