

Coast Guard Inventory

Buoy Tenders, Inland

Length: 65 - 100

Crew: 1 officer, 13 - 22 enlisted

First Year Commissioned: 1944

Max speed: 8 - 11 knots

Endurance: 2 - 3 days

Major Missions: aids to navigation primarily in Intra-Coastal Waterway, law enforcement, search and rescue

Inventory: 16

Training Cutters

Length: 180, 299 feet

Crew: 4 - 12 officers, 25 - 38 enlisted, 150 cadets

First Year Commissioned: 1936

Max speed: 11 - 16 knots

Endurance: 21 days

Major Missions: (deepwater) training (international, future officers), search and rescue

Inventory: 2

Harbor Tugs

Length: 65 feet

Crew: 6 enlisted

First Year Commissioned: 1961

Max speed: 10 knots

Endurance: 2 days

Major missions: ice ops, port security, law enforcement, search and rescue

Inventory: 15

47-foot Motor Lifeboat

Length: 47 feet

Crew: four enlisted

Cruising range: 200 miles

Major missions: port security, law enforcement, search and rescue

Inventory: 68

44-foot Motor Surfboat

Length: 44 feet

Crew: four enlisted

Cruising range: 215 miles

Major missions: port security, law enforcement, search and rescue

Inventory: 44

41-foot Utility boat

Length: 41 feet

Crew: three enlisted

Cruising range: 300 miles

Major missions: port security, law enforcement, search and rescue

Inventory: 173

PA1 TELFAH H. BROWN, G-IPA

The CGC Line (WYTL 65611) is one of 15 small harbor tugs in the Coast Guard inventory. It has a crew size of six and a cruising endurance of two days.

PAC TODD LYONS, 17 DIST.

The HC-130 Hercules is a long-range surveillance and transport, fixed-wing aircraft that is used to perform search and rescue, enforcement of laws and treaties including illegal drug interdiction, marine environmental protection, military readiness, and International Ice Patrol missions, as well as cargo and personnel transport.