

Interagency Coordinating Committee on Oil
Pollution Research (ICCOPR)
and the
US Arctic Research Commission (USARC)

Interaction Meeting

March 4, 2010
(8:30A.M. – 3:30 P.M.)
*includes 1-hour lunch break

North Pacific Research Board Conference Room
1007 West 3rd Avenue, Suite 100
Anchorage, AK, 99501

Call In: (877) 951-0541
Passcode: 1069168

8:30: Welcome/ Introductions

- ICCOPR Members- USCG, FEMA, NOAA, NIST, EPA, DOE, MMS, USFWS, MARAD, USACE, USN, NASA, PHMSA
- USARC Members
- Meeting Purpose Overview

9:30: ICCOPR Overview:

- History/Background
- High Latitude Projects/ Research Efforts
 - In-Situ Burn Workshop Overview
 - USCG Oil in Ice Project (CG R&D Center)
 - NOAA/CRRRC Arctic Natural Resource Damage Assessment Preview (NOAA)
 - IOSC 2011
- Current State/Concerns
- Future Initiatives
 - Public Meeting- May 2010 (Seattle, WA)
 - Public Meeting- June 2010 (Washington, DC)
 - Formal Meeting- July 2010 (Washington, DC)

11:00: Open Discussion

11:30: Break

12:30: USARC Overview

- History/Background
- Expert Panel Presentations
 - Commission Advisor/Former Commissioner Walter Parker; former chair of the Alaska Oil Spill Commission
 - Scott Pegau, co-author of USARC sponsored paper on Arctic oil spill research needs.
 - TBA. Information on recent developments in spill research and prevention and CRRRC workshop.
- Arctic Project/ Research Effort Updates
- Current State/Concerns

2:00: Open Discussion

- Shared Arctic Concerns
- Way Forward
- Communication

3:00: Closing Remarks and Follow-up