

Senior Chief Jeffery D. Halcomb
District Command Senior Chief (Reserve)
Seventeenth Coast Guard District

Senior Chief Halcomb was selected by Rear Admiral Arthur E. Brooks as the First Reserve Command Senior Chief for the Seventeenth District in May of 2006.

As a native of California, Senior Chief Halcomb entered the Coast Guard on active duty in June 1979 and became a member of the Coast Guard Reserve in September of 1990.

Senior Chief Halcomb's prior assignments include USCGC Comanche, RTC Yorktown Machinery Technician School, Station Cape Disappointment, Emergency Medical Technician School instructor TRACEN Petaluma, USCGC Point Chico, Maritime Law Enforcement Instructor TRACEN Petaluma, North Pacific Regional Fisheries Training Center, Reserve Unit Anchorage, Air Station Kodiak, Harbor Warfare Team 1-MSO Valdez and Support Center Kodiak.

In civilian life, Senior Chief Halcomb is the Fire Chief at Base Support Unit Kodiak fire Department and has been assigned there for the past 20 years. In addition, he is a Commercial Fisherman and career Basketball Referee.

Senior Chief Halcomb's Coast Guard awards include Alaska Reservist of the year 1999 and 2001, Fire fighter of the year 1999 and Fire Officer of the year 2003, 5 Achievement Medals with "O" device, Commandants Letter of Commendation, 2 Humanitarian service Medals, 4 Good Conduct Medals, 2 Reserve Good Conduct Medals, Expert Rifle and Pistol Medals and numerous service and units awards. He is a graduate of the Chief Petty Officers Academy, class CXVI and the Altus Tendo award recipient