Aloha CGSA! We hope you all enjoyed your Valentine's Day with your sweetheart. February's membership meeting was a lot of fun and we had a great turn out making

Valentine's Day baskets for our spouse's. There were a lot of wonderful goodies shared and I know all of your spouses were excited to receive their basket. ## Co-President's message cont.

A big Maholo to Debbie Bergeon and Cereto Bean for graciously agreeing to volunteer their time to solicit CGSA members interested in filling in Executive Board positions for the 2007-2008 club year. If you are interested in serving as President, Vice-president, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, or Corresponding Secretary, please let either Debbie or Cereto know. Remember, the position of President can be served by two people and be considered as one ticket. If you are currently serving on the Executive Board and would like to continue to do so next year, please let Debbie or Cereto know that as well.

Our March membership meeting is scheduled for March 13th at Ft. Shafter. This will be a fun meeting as we will be attending the Ft. Shafter Tour of Homes together between 5:00-8:00. We hope you have made plans to come to this fun evening and have RSVP'd and have purchased your tickets from Kerri Luera.

As we move into spring, some are beginning to think about moving. If you are leaving the island this year or know someone that is please let either one of us know.

With Aloha,

Jonellen and Connie

This month's hike will be going to Moana Falls at 10am, March 20th. Please call me or email if you would like to join this hike.

"Tucked in the back of lush Manoa Valley is this waterfall, which is commonly thought to be one of the most beautiful sights on O'ahu. It rushes over a precipice and drops 100 feet to the pool below. The briskly cold water makes a refreshing change from the sticky Hawaiian air. The hike to the waterfall takes approximately an hour and is not particularly difficult. The trail can get slippery during the rain, but on sunny days, it's clearly marked and easy to follow." From Yahoo Travel review online.

Playful and smart, a coming-of-middle age story of a woman not ready to give up on love and life. He got the second home and the Porsche. She got the kids and a broken heart. Now Jackie, post-divorce and heading toward the big four is on vacation in sunny Hawaii and staring down her upcoming birthday -- alone. But not for long. She's soon falling for Kai, her gorgeous, much younger surf instructor, and the wild passionate fling they have becomes the biggest surprise of Jackie's life. Back home in Seattle, Jackie has to struggle with single parenthood . . . and memories of Kai. He hasn't forgotten her. Yet thousands of miles of ocean -- not to mention an age difference that feels even wider- separate them. And, of course, her friends disapprove. When a choice must be made, can she, will she risk everything for her chance at happiness?

The meeting will be held at Marci Williams' house at Schofield on 22 March at 6:45pm:

123 Gordon Road

Schofield Base

Directions:

Thank you's.....

Hi everyone. I hope that we have all been having fun with gift giving and receiving gifts this year. The year is starting to come to an end and I have picked a date for the unveiling of your partner's party. I think that April 15th, which is a Sunday in the afternoon might work for everyone. If you have a problem with this date please let me know ASAP by email and give a suggestion to me on what might work for you. This will be the day that you get to not only find out who has been giving you all those great gifts, but to thank that person for everything that you have gotten over the past year. Also, please don't forget to use the newsletter for thank you's till then and even for one big thank you after it's all over.
