719B Rev (3/04) REMAINS VALID

Mariners should continue to use the Credential Application Form 719B Rev (3/04) with an OMB expiration date of 7/31/2009 as the currently approved and valid application. This form requires, and is undergoing, revisions in order to assist mariners in providing complete applications, simplify the application process and to align the form with the new Merchant Mariner Credential Regulations. When approved, the new revision will be phased in over a period of time which will be publicized in advance.

Sincerely,
Brian K. Eisentrout
Deputy Director
