

Mr. David L. Walts

Branch Chief

FC-51 (Training and Education Branch)

United States Coast Guard

Mr. David L. Walts has served for the last eight years as Deputy Chief, Office of Training, Workforce Performance and Development which is basically the FC-51 position in predecessor organizations in CG-1 (Assistant Commandant for Human Resources).

Prior to this position, he worked as a Senior Systems Analyst and Program Manager in the private sector. The vast majority of his work in that area was on Coast Guard contracts including Rescue 21 system development and IRM and telecommunications projects.

Mr. Walts last position before retirement from Coast Guard active duty in 1995 was as the Human Resources Manager for the predecessor organization of CG-6 (Assistant Commandant for Command Control, Communications Computers and Information Technology.) During his Coast Guard career previous to that assignment, he held various jobs in Information and Communications Management and served aboard four Cutters.

Mr. Walts is a 1972 graduate of the Coast Guard Academy and holds Masters Degrees from Webster University and the Naval Postgraduate School.