

PETER TANG-JENSEN
Senior Vice President, Technology
American Bureau of Shipping

Peter Tang-Jensen is Senior Vice President Technology for ABS. He is also an elected Corporate Officer of the society. He provides strategic leadership for the society's technology group which includes research and product development. Peter Tang-Jensen joined ABS from Odense Steel Shipyard, Ltd. where he was Executive Vice President, responsible for Design and Engineering.

Peter Tang-Jensen earned a Master of Science degree in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering from the Technical University of Denmark and attended Harvard Business School as well as CEDEP in France for advanced business management training. He has been a member of numerous boards and committees including serving as a Member of the Technical Advisory Committee for the Joint European Shipbuilding Organization.