

NOTICE – FREE LEGAL REPRESENTATION

During a Suspension and Revocation (S&R) proceeding, you may represent yourself, be represented by an attorney, or be represented by a non-attorney. 33 C.F.R. § 20.301(a).

Neither the U.S. Coast Guard nor the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Program has vetted, recommends, or endorses any particular attorney or non-attorney representatives for these proceedings. However, if you cannot afford an attorney, no-cost (pro bono) legal assistance may be available.

This document contains a complete listing of the attorneys and organizations who have volunteered to provide pro bono legal assistance in S&R cases. The presence of an attorney or organization on this list does not imply any recommendation or endorsement. Likewise, the presence of an attorney or organization on this list does not obligate anyone to take your case. You are responsible for finding your own representation, and you are ultimately responsible for any costs or expenses, if any, associated with your chosen representation.

Attorneys in the following states have volunteered to provide pro bono services for S&R proceedings. Please click on the below state name to obtain more information:

California	Florida	Louisiana
Maine	Maryland	Massachusetts
Minnesota	New Hampshire	New York
North Carolina	Oregon	Pennsylvania
Rhode Island	South Carolina	Texas
Virginia	Washington	Washington D.C.
West Virginia

In addition to the above pro bono resources, bar associations and several online entities provide lawyer referral services. The following resources may be useful in finding an attorney:

Neither the Coast Guard nor the ALJ Program has vetted, recommends, or endorses any of the attorneys or organizations on this list. You are ultimately responsible for choosing your representation and paying for any costs associated with that representation.
