

High Water Alarms

Links to applicable regulations

46 CFR 28.250 - Requirement

Checklist for this item

	Check that each visible indicator for each space lights when the float switch from each space is triggered.
	Check that the audible alarm sounds when the float switch from each space is triggered.
	Ensure there is a high water alarm is fitted for each of the spaces:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A space with a through hull fitting below the deepest load waterline, such as a lazarette.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A space subject to flooding from sea water piping, such as a machinery space bilge, bilge well, shaft alley bilge.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A space with a non-watertight closure, such as a space covered with a non-watertight deck hatch.

Voyage Termination Warning

Your vessels voyage can be terminated if the high water alarm system is not operational