

Master Chief Kedrick J. Marcotte assumed the duties as Command Master Chief for Coast Guard Air Station Borinquen in July 2016. His primary responsibility is to advise the Commanding Officer on issues and initiatives pertaining to approximately 150 Coast Guard members and their families.

Originally from Cooper City, FL., Master Chief Marcotte enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in October 1988. His previous assignments include SN aboard USCGC NAUSHON (WPB-1311) Ketchikan, AK (1988-1991); AD "A" School April 1991; AIRSTA Elizabeth City, NC (1991-1994); AIRSTA Kodiak, AK (1994-1996), AIRSTA Clearwater, FL (1996-2002); AIRSTA Elizabeth City, NC (2002-2006), AIRSTA Sacramento, CA (2006-2011); Command Senior Chief for Sector Lower Mississippi River (2011-2013); and Command Master Chief for Sector San Juan (2013-2016).

Master Chief Marcotte is a distinguished graduate of the Chief Petty Officer's Academy where he was awarded the "Altus Tendo" award in November 2006. He is also a graduate of various service schools including the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course in April 2011; Dale Carnegie's "High Impact Presentation" and Decker Communication "Communicate to Influence" courses.

Master Chief Marcotte holds an Associate of Arts degree in General Studies from American Military University and is aggressively pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary Studies in Education. His certifications include: FAA Flight Engineer and Airframe & Power plant licenses, FAA Ground Operator's License, and Fiber Optics Technician and Installer Certifications.

Master Chief Marcotte's personal awards include one Coast Guard Commendation Medal, two Coast Guard Achievement Medals, and two Commandant's Letter of Commendation ribbons with the operational distinguishing device. His other awards include eight Coast Guard Good Conduct Medals, four Meritorious Team Commendations, and various other unit awards.

Master Chief Marcotte is happily married to Laura and has a beautiful, talented, and energetic 14 year old daughter.