

John E. Hallman
Commander, U. S. Coast Guard
Logistics Department Head,
Coast Guard Sector Key West

CDR John Hallman is the Chief of Logistics and Commanding Officer of Enlisted Personnel for Coast Guard Sector Key West. He is responsible for coordinating engineering, supply, acquisitions, personnel administration, medical, galley, and port services to over 700 active duty members engaged in Coast Guard response operations in the Florida Keys and Southern Florida Straits.

CDR Hallman attended Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University where he graduated with a B. S. in Aeronautical Science in 1992. He earned his Master of Business Administration from the University of Maryland in 2002. CDR Hallman is a Certified Financial Manager, Certified Managerial Accountant, Certified Government Financial Manager, and Commercial Pilot with a multi-engine instrument rating.

CDR Hallman is married to the former Holly Taylor of Pasadena, MD. They have three grown children.

EDUCATION

1992 B. S. Aeronautical Science, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Daytona Beach, FL
2002 MBA, University of Maryland, College Park, MD

ASSIGNMENTS

1994-1996 Seaman, USCGC CIMARRON, Paris Landing, TN
1996-1997 Assistant Operations Officer, Group Moriches, East Moriches, NY
1997-1999 Deck Watch Officer, USCGC KUKUI, Honolulu, HI
1999-2001 Executive Officer, USCGC BISCAYNE BAY, St. Ignace, MI
2001-2002 University of Maryland, College Park, MD
2003-2006 Business Manager, G-AWP (Acquisitions), Washington, DC
2006-2008 Executive Officer, USCGC MACKINAW, Cheboygan, MI
2008-2011 Comptroller, CG TRACEN Cape May, Cape May, NJ
2011-2014 Chief, Budget Execution Division, CG-831, Washington, DC
2014-present Logistics Department Head, SECTOR Key West, Key West, FL

MAJOR AWARDS AND DECORATIONS

Meritorious Service Medal
(3) Coast Guard Commendation Medals
(3) Coast Guard Achievement Medals
(3) Letters of Commendation
DHS CFO Award for Excellence in Financial Management, Executive Award