

Outer Continental Shelf National Center of Expertise

Staff Biographies

Lieutenant Commander Gregory "Greg" Mosko, National Technical Advisor

In July 2014, LCDR Mosko transitioned to the Outer Continental Shelf National Center of Expertise. Prior Marine Safety assignments include Marine Safety Unit Houma, Louisiana Chief of Inspections, Marine Safety Detachment Supervisor Nags Head, North Carolina and Marine Safety Unit Houma, Louisiana. Operational tours prior to entering the Marine Safety Program include tours aboard CGC Jarvis, CGC Venturous and as a Machinery Technician tours aboard CGC Nantucket, CGC Metompkin and in-theatre assignments for PATFORSWA aboard CGC Adak, CGC Wrangell, CGC Aquidneck and CGC Baranof.

Primary area of expertise is Offshore Supply Vessels to include Well Stimulation, Well Fracture, Dive (Surface Supplied & Saturation), Multi-Certification, Anchor Handling, Lift Boats and Existing vessels.