Regional Exam Centers

Regional Examination Centers (RECs) are your first step toward obtaining a Merchant Mariner Credential (MMC). The 17 RECs and the Monitoring Units are located throughout the United States, and have four primary functions in support of the Mariner Credentialing Program. RECs pre-screen applications for completeness, administer exams, and conduct oversight of approved courses. They also serve as an outreach to the Maritime Industry to ensure a better understanding of the merchant mariner credentialing process.
