

Welcome aboard CAPT Martin!

On Friday July 01, 2016 CAPT Kirsten R. Martin, USCG assumed command of the National Maritime Center (NMC) in Martinsburg, WV. CAPT Martin comes to the NMC after most recently serving at the Department of Transportation (DOT) as the Maritime Safety and Security Advisor to Secretary Foxx and Deputy Secretary Mendez. During her assignment at the DOT she provided guidance on a wide range of maritime matters and represented the Department on the National Ocean Council, Arctic Executive Steering Committee, Chesapeake Bay Federal Leadership Committee and the Coordinating Board for the U.S. Committee on the Marine Transportation System.

We at the NMC would also like to congratulate CAPT Jeffrey P. Novotny, USCG (ret.) on his retirement from active duty after more than 27 years of honorable service to the United States. Fair winds and following seas CAPT Novotny!
