

Welcome to the New National Maritime Center Website

The National Maritime Center (NMC) will release its newly redesigned website on Friday 7 June. There may be short periods of downtime as we make the transition. The new site has been crafted to reflect the process an applicant follows to gain a Merchant Mariner Credential and also builds upon technology capable of addressing future needs. Immediately you will notice streamlined menus, simplified navigation, and easy access to the information you need. We have designed the new NMC website as a resource hub with a fresh new look, user-friendly navigation, and expanded capabilities for learning and sharing.

Your feedback was greatly appreciated during the Beta phase. We will continue to expand our online content to bring you updated and relevant information, so we encourage you to bookmark this site, and check back often. Subscribe to the NMC List Server to receive notice when updates and new content are added. There is a link on the homepage to access the registration form.

If you would take a brief moment to share your thoughts using the website feedback form, we would appreciate hearing about your experience with the new site and how we can continue to improve.

Sincerely,

/A. S. Lloyd/
